

11th Grade

Congratulations to: Virginia Plummer

Virginia is the epitome of the ideal student. She always uses her time wisely in and outside of class to better herself in her studies. If there is information that she is unable to find, she never hesitates to ask. She always stays on top of her assignments and her grade in my class. I am certain that her other teachers will share the same sentiment.

Submitted by: Mr. Anthony Shields

Student of the Month, April 2015