Congratulations to: Alexandra Brown

Although she can sometimes be forgetful when it comes to assignments, Alexandra always gives each task her best effort. She never makes excuses for herself and instead takes initiative to make up assignments or even study to get ahead in a lesson. She both positive and polite, assisting her peers during class and asking her own questions to better understand presented concepts.

Submitted by: Mrs. Spencer