Final Grades

Final semester grades should be averaged in the following manner:
- For courses requiring a semester exam, each nine weeks counts as 40% and the exam counts as 20% of the semester grade.
- For courses in which no semester exam is required, each nine weeks will count as 50% of the semester grade.
- Any student who misses the exam due to an excused absence should be given an incomplete for both the exam and semester grades. The student will have two weeks to make up the exam.
- According to policy, students who do not take the exam in a course requiring an exam cannot receive credit for the course. They should be given a failing grade for the semester and an incomplete for the exam grade.
- Students that earn a pass proficient on their SOL test are exempt from their exam. No exam grade should be given and each nine weeks will count as 50% of the semester grade.
- Students that earn a pass advanced on their SOL test are exempt from their exam and should be given an A as their exam grade. Each nine weeks counts 40% and the A for the exam grade counts as 20% of the semester grade.
- Students enrolled in 11th grade English must pass both the writing and the reading SOL tests to be exempt from exams and they must earn a pass advanced on both tests to receive an A for the exam grade.
